

About Us

Brain Storm Productions is a company that draws on the expertise of well - trained passionate filmmakers, with a combined experience of over 15 years in the media industry.

The company was formed to service the growing need for professional productions of high quality broadcast programming in the Caribbean region.

Its focus has been on developing exciting tourism driven documentaries that showcase the islands of the Southern Caribbean.

Productions are fashioned by award winning Producer, Amanda John known for productions on The Grenada Sailing Festival, Carriacou Regatta, The Spice Isle Billfish Tournament 2007 and regionally recognized by the Pan American Health Organization for Excellence in Health Journalism.

Brain Storm Productions has successfully been covering the first ever, Southern Caribbean Billfish Circuit, launched in Grenada in 2008, as it continues to use quality imagery to showcase the islands of the Caribbean through the unique sport of game fishing.

A talented team of innovative filmmakers is committed to raising the bar of video productions in the Caribbean region while marketing the sports tourism product.
